THE

KENTUCKIAN

48

DEDICATION

To Kentucky State College
Alumni wherever you are, we the class of 1948 do humbly dedicate this the first volume of "The Kentuckian." It is with genuine love for our dear Alma Mater that we have worked diligently that she may forever progress.

Dr. R. B. Atwood, President

To the Class of 1948:

It is highly gratifying to me to commend the members of your class for the energy and initiative which you have so ably demonstrated in the completion of this our first college yearbook. I can only hope that your fine example will be emulated by future groups of students at this college.

On behalf of fellow-workers and myself I want to thank all of you who have contributed in any way to this project. You have given both the institution and your fellow-students an excellent opportunity to possess a permanent record of this year's activities within our campus community.

Dr. David H. Bradford
Dean of the College

Greetings to the Class of '48:

The Class of '48 is to be congratulated on another First. In the years to come probably no memento of your college days will be dearer to you than this pictorial account of your Alma Mater. Though pictures have a way of becoming "dated", those contained herein will always remain for you a fresh record and a pleasant reminder of the happy, exciting days spent at Kentucky State College

Our First Family at Home.

Dear Students:

As your Chaplain, I realistically say to you that all of us, and particularly you, face an admittedly uncertain future. Nothing religious or secular has guaranteed you immunity from the stresses, strains or frustrations of life. However a belief and trust in God guarantees you the power and ability to meet these calamities with courage and hope and through a heart, soul and body that may be seared with pain, overcome the most mountainous obstacles.

So as this academic year closes, my admonition and advice to you is to keep God ever-present in your lives, and the countless tomorrows will not only seem secure but bright and overflowing with promise.

Rev. Charles Earl Cobbs
Chaplain

The Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, the first Greek letter Sorority among Negro college women of America, was organized at Howard University in 1908. The aim of the sorority is to promote high standards of womanhood. Today there are more than 165 chapters located in cities from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast and from the Great Lakes to the Gulf of Mexico. The sorority has nationally known projects which express realization of social responsibility and Alpha Kappa Alpha women have made worthwhile contributions to humanity throughout America and abroad in the various fields.

Beta Zeta Chapter of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority was set up on Kentucky State College campus in 1933.

Sorority Hymn

With fervent hearts we pray, for you Zeta each day
You've always stood for right, rather than for might
We'll love you ever, and forsake you never,
When Zeta calls, we'll answer one and all.
(Refrain)

Zeta Phi Beta we love you so
Your very name sets our hearts aglow
You are brave and you will see that Zeta Phi Beta means victory.

Athletic Mentors of K. S. C.

C. RANDOLPH TAYLOR

Head Coach of Football

Coach Taylor is a graduate of Tufts College and Ohio State University. As an undergraduate he won nine varsity letters in football, basketball, and track; was named as an all-New England halfback; was the New England inter-collegiate sprint champion; and was named the best all-around athlete in his graduating class.

He has coached at Johnson C. Smith University, Tillotson College, and Bluefield State College. While he was coaching at these schools, his football and basketball teams won many honors in the North Carolina Athletic Union, the Bi-State Athletic Conference, and the Colored Intercollegiate Athletic Conference.

Mr. Taylor serves Kentucky State College as Head Coach of Football and Track and Assistant Professor of Biology.

JOSEPH G. FLETCHER

Head Coach of Basketball

A graduate of Hampton Institute and Cornell University, Coach Fletcher was appointed head basketball coach at Kentucky State College, July, 1946. Mr. Fletcher, who is also an associate professor of English, won varsity basketball letters at Hampton and was a star center on the 1929 C.I.A.A. championship team.

Coach Fletcher's varied experience in the basketball field includes recognition as a certified C.I.A.A. basketball referee, service as assistant basketball coach at Hampton, and seven years at Richmond, Ky. High School where he coached three State Championship teams.
